

Your name:

Word count:

Purpose of source: [background, support for initial position, counterargument (opposing opinion), solutions/ways to solve the problem]

Summary Template:

In "Title of Article," a (state the year) adaptation/excerpt/chapter/article from Publication where it appeared, Author (first and last name or full title of organization) argues/explains/describes/outlines/highlights that Thesis (main point of article) in your own words. First, he/she/they claim(s) first supporting point. For instance, specific example from the text to illustrate this point (can be paraphrase or quote). Next, he/she/they examine(s) second supporting point. For example, specific example from the text to illustrate this point (can be paraphrase or quote). Third, he/she/they suggest(s) third supporting point. For instance, specific example from the text to illustrate this point (can be paraphrase or quote). To conclude he/she/they state(s) sum up the conclusion (may be a solution, a forecast for the future, etc.)

Give full citation, using MLA --Double check your citation using a citation generator like Citefast--MLA

Works Cited <-center this phrase

Place full citation below (flush first line to the left; tab/indent second and subsequent lines (spacing and indentation should look like this)