The only girl...

This photo represents being the only female on a team full of males. Wish there was a way to convince other girls to do it...

Few short years later!

Finally I convinced my friends to do it. It is amazing having them to enjoy my favorite sport with.

Silent prayer.

As a community we always came together no matter what. I love this sport despite the challenges we face.

Wish us girls could have a state championship too..

All of the boys warming up to chase titles.
Us girls knew we wouldn't make it past districts having to wrestle boy so much stronger than us.

Sanction girls wrestling

Ahh, finally they included us. We can wrestle girls now, and even have our own state championship. The amount of girls who have started to join is drastic.
